

1. Contents of the Universe

1. Rank the following objects from smallest to largest

2. The subatomic particles called protons, neutrons, and electrons each carry a positive, neutral, and negative charge respectively. If an atom of standard carbon contains six protons, six neutrons, and seven electrons, what is its net charge?
3. 1 AU or Astronomical Unit is _____meters or _____Kilometers. 1 AU is the average distance of the sun to _____.
4. A group of hundreds or thousands of stars is called a _____
5. Which of these types of objects is least numerous in the solar system?

6. The Radius of Betelgeuse is 1000 times as big as the sun. Its volume is _____times bigger.